

When you create what
Your soul asks for,
You get fearless

JANUARY 2024

There is a 'thought coach' program where I help Chairman of large and mid-size family businesses by working with them to help them reach their next levels of impossible manifestations that they hope for.

There is an unsettling line of thought I use and it always amazes them when they find it to be incredibly useful and critically helpful.

This is the point when I ask them: How do they want to repaint future with their soul?

It is here I always remind them:

"When you are born into a world where you don't fit in, it's because you were born to help create a new one." - Quoted by anonymous

This recognition helps them in surviving further down the road of unsettling journey towards a guaranteed manifestation.

The whole aspect is to not be afraid but how?

Love dissolves fear. Gives birth to freedom.

Love dissolves conditions. Gives birth to stunning possibilities.

Love dissolves the fear of uncertainty.

Makes the heart steady in the knowledge of certainty amidst uncertainty.

Soul wants love and nothing else. Know this. Free yourself from all else.

Own much more of you that you may not have lately.

All you have to believe is that you are here to manifest nothing but love and its creation in forms.

If you love then you let your soul take the rein and use your mind for what it is given alongside with heart to the soul to rein—figuring the way out for manifestation of what you truly believe and love.

Again read, and feel; “When you are born into a world where you don’t fit in, it’s because you were born to help create a new one.”

Man do age but institutions are ageless.

Build a future that thrives for perennial happiness, abundance and freedom. To do so, paint using your soul. Create your constitution for future you see. Put that spirit and its voice in it.

Go detach from it by implementing it through powerful, tireless and ageless systems for your spirit and its voice.

These systems and their interspace configuration across your organisation will make your spirit & voice to penetrate, permeate, and percolate to the depths of consciousness of your people and every micro and macro processes, through its implementation systems.

Follow your soul, it will not deceive you.

The rewards in financial or anything that creates experience of freedom will all be given to you in abundance (abundance you won't be able to imagine!)

Don't let thoughts of despair and weakness find any place in your good heart.

Siddharth is far more infinitely powerful than you are willing to accept and hence the fear.

The fear isn't born out of inability or lack but rather from your trusting the fact that you are infinitely powerful!

It is very counterintuitive—since you know that if you trust the above then you would go fearless and will no longer be faint-hearted and this exactly puts you in fear and this is what you are afraid of. Read again!

If you choose to measure the loss & irony here you would realise that the price to pay for being free from ignorance is only to trust that your soul in love is infinitely powerful. Somewhere, we all are same. We all take fear as mere excuse to not work hard.

We know that being afraid will save us from putting our sweat, and brow, and backbone to it. Everyday.

Let go of this. Admit the stupidity with grace and laughter and make that commitment to do anything for love, as exactly as the soul seekers do. It will absolve you of all and will create a version of you that you always wanted but was afraid of it for no soul reasons.

You Know This.

The world will ask you who you are, and if you don't know, the world will tell you.

—Carl Jung

You Feel This.

You are not a drop in the ocean. You are the ocean in a drop.

– Rumi

You Believe This.

We are not human beings having a spiritual experience. We are spiritual beings having a human experience.

—Pierre Teilhard de Chardin

You Own This.

I used to be a guy who was experiencing the Universe, but now I feel like the Universe is experiencing a guy.

—Jim Carry

As a thought coach, I always tell my clients:

Take a plunge for your dream. Because if you don't, who else will?

Every day that you are not working towards your dream, you are actually walking far from it. And, soon your dreams will be too big for your energy & health.

Don't keep walking alone. Build tireless systems to propel you everyday in the direction of your dream.
